

WHISKEY CHAIR

If you need to find me you know I'll be there
I'll be sitting in the Whiskey Chair
Don't know why but I don't really care
Just seems like it's always been waiting there

I try to stand tall but I can't find my feet
I can't walk 'cause I can't leave this seat
Got my mind messed up and life on hold
Takes a man with some courage, make that man feel old

Now I hear you callin' and I'll meet you there
Please believe me, believe that I care
Surprise me baby, do it with flair
We both know you'd never back down from a dare

If you need to find me you know I'll be there
I'll be sitting in the Whiskey Chair
Don't know why but I don't really care
Just remember Momma left it waiting there

I try to remember the feelings I knew
Back in the day when everything was still new Wishin' time'd stood still and you'd never grew
Just'd leave a hole where you're being you

And even if you feel that there already is Your coke's gone flat, there ain't no more fizz
And everybody but you seems to be doin the biz
Try and remember it's just the way that it is

If you need to find me you know I'll be there
I'll be sitting in the Whiskey Chair
Don't know why but I don't really care
Just seems like it's always been waiting there
